Not illustrated. 1853 Excerpt: ...before marriage, as it was alleged in the claim, but of which there was no direct proof, by an indenture dated the 21st August, 1826, settled upon trusts for the benefit of the plaintiff and her said husband, and the issue of the said marriage. No settlement or provision was ever made by the husband out of his own property. In 1830, the husband being in pecuniary difficulties, the plaintiff joined him in mortgaging the West Haddon property, and in 1834, that property was sold by the mortgagee, when it realized the sum of 4,800/., all of which was spent in payment of the mortgage and other specialty debts of the husband. In 1833 the husband became bankrupt. There were two children of the marriage, a son and a daughter. In 1838, the husband abandoned his wife and children, and has never since contributed to their support, and it was lately discovered that he had been for years living in a state of adultery. The plaintiff and her children resided with, and were partly supported by, the plaintiff's mother, Sarah Whitwell, from the time of the husband's desertion of them down to the time of Sarah Whitwell's death, which occurred in October, 1850, upon which event the plaintiff, as residuary legatee of her father, became entitled to the said sum of 1,000/. trust money. In February, 1851, the plaintiff obtained a divorce a mensd et thoro, on the ground of adultery. Upon the death of Sarah Whitwell, the defendants, the assignees in bankruptcy of the husband, entered into possession or receipt of the rents and profits of the property at Crick, amounting to about 200/. per annum, and also applied to the trustees of the testator for the payment of the said 1,000/. The claim stated that the income arising from the 3,000/. settled by the indenture of 1826, was not suffi...
