Enid and Geraint Erin Brierley

“I beg your leave, sir—honest friend and noble father!—let me do battle for your fair daughter’s honour! If I fall, her name and beauty shall remain ever as pure and sweet as they were before; but should God give me victory, my own true wife shall she be.”

Evoking the golden age of King Arthur and the Knights of the Round Table, the legendary romance of Geraint and Enid has enthralled successive generations for more than a thousand years. Drawing on a variety of sources, including the medieval Welsh Mabinogion and Tennyson’s 'Idylls of the King,' Erin Brierley’s 'Enid and Geraint' transports the reader on a fateful quest across the misty landscapes of long ago, in which doubt, danger, and death itself will put true love to the test.
