Tennis from the Heart: Pursuing the Dream Ted Murray

All kids have dreams. Many kids dream of being world-class athletes. What happens to these dreams during the course of a lifetime? Why are there so few sports superstars when hundreds of millions of kids dream of being a sports hero. This is the story of a tennis player who pursued his dream to the highest level, the finals of Wimbledon. As you enjoy discovering how Sam's dream developed and how it was nurtured and challenged along the way, you can learn about yourself - as a player, a parent, a coach or simply a tennis enthusiast. We hope you enjoy the story, while allowing the lessons to sink in for you along the way. Ultimately you can learn, like sam did, that achieving the dream is not as important as the person you become in the pursuit of it.
