The Leithen Stories (Canongate Classics) John Buchan

Edward Leithen is the closest of Buchan's protagonists to the author's own experience and imagination. A prosperous Scots lawyer and MP in London, Leithen seeks adventure to relieve the tedium of respectability. This collection of four novels, written over a span of 30 years, shows Leith/Buchan in all his moods. In The Power House he is forced by event and accident to see civilization as a thin veneer over the human jungle, in John Macnab he makes his own adventure by playing the poacher, in Sick Heart River he meets death and redemption in the wastes of Canada. Introduced by Christopher Harvie.
