American-Romanian Relations, 1989-2004: From Pariah to Partner (East European Monograph)

Joseph Harrington

Based on government sources and numerous ambassadorial interviews, this work details relations between the United States and Romania from 1989 to 2004. The book describes Bucharest's strategies to secure its foreign policy goals during that period: restoration of most-favored-nation product treatment with the United States, membership in NATO, and entry into the European Union.
