Events and decisions of the past almost cost her everything, but she was given a second chance. He marvels at the beautiful life that almost slipped through his fingers, vowing never to let anything come between them again. The memory of being apart lingers with both Sam and AJ, but those days are long gone. Now that the dust has settled, all that remains is their unwavering love and an impenetrable bond many have tried and failed to break. "Today. Tomorrow. Always." is a glimpse into the life this couple has managed to build together and a chance to catch up with old friends you've grown to love throughout the Free Falling series.
