Sacred Journey Ward Tanneberg

In the Christian life, we have the privilege of being led by the Good Shepherd, but every journey has to end. In a word picture framed by her final eighteen months on earth, Ward Tanneberg tenderly unpacks Dixie's story, that of a private woman who lived a public life, not by choice, but by divine calling. While seeking to know a heavenly Father as elusive to her as her own had been, her life becomes a tapestry of struggle, faith, courage, and, in the end, triumph. And she does not waste her cancer. Bereavement groups, caregivers, and individuals coping with loss may find the discussion questions following the text helpful for traveling their own sacred journeys.
