ABOUT THE BOOK:

Nothing is higher on God's agenda for Himself and for His people than worship. To God worship is so vital that to fail to experience genuine worship is fatal. Yet it is possible to go through life thinking we have worshiped without ever having done so. Any study of worship is incomplete without a life-action response. This six-week interactive study presents a process where God brings you face-to-face with His truth, then guides you to an interaction with that truth. This study brings the pastor, staff, church leaders, and congregation to a mutual conviction regarding what worship is as God has revealed it in His Word. The purpose of this study is to help a church corporately come to unity of heart and life in their understanding and experience of God's requirements and standards for worship.

- Week 1: What God Did in Creation
- Week 2: Why God Is So Central in Worship
- Week 3: What Is God's Standard for Acceptable Worship?
- Week 4: The Lifestyle of a Transformed Worshiper
- Week 5: Heaven's Pattern for Worship
- Week 6: What Would Happen if We Returned to Worship?

ABOUT THE AUTHORS:

Henry Blackaby has spent his life in ministry. He has served as a music director, Christian education director, and senior pastor in churches in California and Canada; his first church assignment was in 1958. Following his local-church ministry, Dr. Blackaby became a Bible college president, a missionary, and an executive in the Southern Baptist Convention. In the early 1990s, Henry Blackaby became one of North America's best-selling Christian authors and committed the rest of his life to helping people know and experience God.

Ron Owens has ministered as a worship leader, and through music, in many areas of the world, teaching, composing, publishing, and recording, along with his wife, Patricia. Their music has been translated into several languages. He was worship and music consultant for the International Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, as well as Associate to Henry Blackaby for ten years. Ron and his wife presently minister in conferences and churches in the United States and abroad, with special emphasis on worship and revival.
