Gemstones and crystals have represented wealth and power since the dawn of civilization. These Earth-born elements - so dense, yet mysteriously filled with light - reveal to us the spirit within matter. Many people work with crystals as allies in achieving material and spiritual prosperity. Like the encoded key-cards that we use to open hotel doors, the Crystal Keys unlock multi-dimensional resources within our planet. By contemplating the patterns and vibrant colors in these images, we come into resonant harmony with the crystalline richness of Earth. Thus aligned, we can use the Keys to access inner and outer resources. Artists Bell & Todd first photograph fine mineral specimens to create these empowering gemstone collages. They then use software and intuitive guidance to shape the brilliant stones into complex symmetries. All the patterning and colors in the images come from the crystals themselves. Nature's code is thus remixed into digital icons that open portals into material and spiritual treasuries.
