Islamic Concept of God Mohammad Ziaullah

The central concerns of this book are the relationship between God and mankind in everyday life. In a highly condensed but lucid manner the author argues as to why God should be adored and loved above all others and outlines the various motives for love.

The book sparkles with quotations and verses from the Persian and Urdu literature of past centuries, treating questions of good and evil, of life here and in the hereafter....

The book is a hymn to the love of Allah (God)
