The Shadow Dragons (Chronicles of the Imaginarium Geographica) James A. Owen

World War II has been raging for three years, but a more terrible evil is just over the horizon. The last stones are falling from the Keep of Time, and the Imperial Cartological Society, led by Richard Burton, has collected doors and is building a new tower at the request of an old enemy: the Winter King's shadow. He has a terrible weapon -- the Spear of Destiny -- that can be used to command the shadows of anyone it touches.

The Shadow King uses the Spear of Destiny to enlist an unstoppable army of Dragon shadows. And after the Archipelago falls, the Shadow King intends to use the turmoil of World War II to take over both worlds.

All the legendary Caretakers, past and present, come together to save two worlds, and their only hope lies with a small group of companions who are on the quest for the broken sword Caliburn: the Grail Child, Rose Dyson; her clockwork companion, the owl Archie; a dead professor of ancient literature; and the mythical knight Don Quixote.

Joann Nixon:

As a pupil, I exactly feel bored for you to read. If their teacher expected them to go to the library as well as to make a summary for some book, they are complained. Just very little students that have reading's soul or real their passion. They just do what the teacher wants, like asked to go to the library. They go to the library but nothing reading really. Any students feel that studying is not important, boring in addition to can't see colorful images on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important to suit your needs. As we know that on this period of time, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise, word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore, this The Shadow Dragons (Chronicles of the Imaginarium Geographica) can make you truly feel more interested to read.
