If laughter is the best medicine here is just what the doctor ordered. Treatment consists of dipping into this display of quirks, vagaries and misuse of the English language found in numerous advertisements and famous quotes. The entertainment continues with a vast array of witty anecdotes and jokes in various settings -- in the office, the pub, the bedroom and even beyond the grave. Whether old or new, they provide a source of amusement, and at the end of each chapter a test of one's wit and intellect adds to the fun. As the title suggests, You Must Be Joking is an essential buy for all readers; one that will not only ensure entertainment, but will be revisited time and time again. A daily dose is recommended.
