Weird People Jarrard Martin

Set in present day, people age until the day they turn 18 years old. Their physical form stops aging, until they fall in love for the first time. Once a person falls in love they earn a heart halo—a small red heart that orbits around one's head for the rest of their life. Weird People is a fictional piece involving mostly POC characters ranging in the LGBT community, involving issues and topics such as coming out/acceptance, star-crossed lovers, racism, homophobia, biphobia/bi-erasure, transphobia, internalized homophobia, a family of friends, and friendship. Domingo Cobilla has never had the best of luck when it came to meeting the one. That is until he meets a weird group of people. He meets who he believes to be the love of his life from a young woman named Kiana. The two seem to hit it off...that is until Domingo's heart begins beating for someone else; his best friend Jojo. After his life spirals out of control, Domingo learns to come to terms with himself and his pride with the help of his friends.
