House of Representatives, Committee on Armed Services, Military Forces and Personnel Subcommittee, Washington, DC, Wednesday, July 21, 1993. The subcommittee met, pursuant to call, at 10 a.m. in room 2118, Raybixim House Office Building, Hon. Ike Skelton (chairman of the subcommittee) presiding. OPENING STATEMENT OF HON. IKE SKELTON, A REPRESENTATIVE FROM MISSOURI, CHAIRMAN, MILITARY FORCES AND PERSONNEL SUBCOMMITTEE Mr. Skelton. The subcommittee will now come to order. Today the subcommittee turns its attention to one of the most controversial issues confronting the nation today, lifting the ban on homosexuals in the military. The time constraints between the President sannouncement and the markup is seven days, five days fi-om now. Undoubtedly, we will write into law and codify the policy. We must, in our subcommittee and hence the committee, write it to be fair to all uniformed personnel, write it to ensure unit cohesion, to keep our fighting forces the best because second place does not count in the battlefield, and write it to meet the constitutional standards. All of this we must do within five days. Over the course of the next two days, the subcommittee will conduct four hearings to assess the plan announced by the President on Monday. During the morning and afternoon sessions today, the subcommittee will focus on understanding the President spolicy, determining the level of support for that policy within the Department of Defense and determining if the policy is feasible, practical and understandable. Tomorrow there is another full day of hearings scheduled. The subcommittee will turn its attention to important legal questions, to determine if the policy is defensible and, of course, workable on an installation level, and most important, constitutionally. The statement of the President appears to continue the policy regarding homosexuals in the mili
