Statistics consistently show that upon arrest, 85% of teens waive their Miranda rights. Combined with the alarming problem of teen false confessions, parents, grandparents, and mentors of teens have good cause for concern. Written by an experienced criminal defense attorney, McKenzie's Warning assures that your teen will have the correct attitude, be prepared, and know how to obtain assistance should they encounter the legal system (and chances are growing that they will!). Within these pages, the Miranda warning is simplified, the legal system de-mystified, and you are instructed on how to empower your teens. For those who care about teens, this basic legal manual is a valuable resource in our post-911 world.
