The Magic of Paper Sculpture David Swinton

The simplest and most creative medium of all materials is paper, and now, with this imaginative tour through the techniques of cutting, folding, and shaping paper, anyone can make a variety of spectacular forms, including three-dimensional, bas-relief natural, and architectural. Projects include puppets, lanterns, flowers, a dragon's head, an angel, Father Christmas, a variety of human heads, and much more. With a complete set of patterns, diagrams, and photographs showing each method and project in detail, the five basic techniques to be learned are clearly explained.
