Six of the Best: Tales of six errant girls and their punishments (A Proper Job) River Hampton

Seven girls work for Skindle Partners, a law firm which has an unusual culture. At Skindle Partners the male employees regularly discipline the girls with spanking and other punishments. Six of those girls were already experienced to some extent in discipline. Lorna had been at a school which still employed corporal punishment. Doris was of Chinese background and disciplined at home to encourage better schoolwork. Bronte had a friend who was spanked at home and when she stayed with that friend Bronte too was caught up in that discipline. Stella had a music teacher with unusual views on discipline. Chloe had never had a birthday spanking until she started working in a shop. Mia loved horses and worked on a farm so she could ride when she wanted, but her laziness and negligence got her in trouble with the farmer. Six girls, six stories, none of them quite what you would expect...
